

I do not wish the do not call law to be changed. i never spend any money on telephone solicitors and the interruption at home is very annoying. I either use the internet or regular mail for donation purposes.